

Ready for
The Plunge

Photo by Anita Scheelings

Maria Kritikos, of Ka'a'awa, Hawaii, and 179 fellow graduates made a big splash May 1 at the spring commencement in Prescott, where she earned a master's degree in safety science. Mark Rosenker, vice chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, was the guest speaker. In Daytona Beach, 777 graduates received degrees after listening to remarks by Robert Crandall, former chairman and CEO of American Airlines.